RULES FOR RADICALS: MANUAL FOR THE OBAMA ADMINISTRATION

RULES FOR RADICALS BY SAUL ALINSKY PAGE 89:

"IT'S ONLY WHEN THE OTHER PARTY IS CONCERNED OR FEELS THREATENED THAT HE WILL LISTEN - IN THE ARENA OF ACTION, A THREAT OR A CRISIS BECOMES ALMOST A PRECONDITION TO COMMUNICATION."

This is exactly what Obama is doing. He is carrying out a tax funded Saul Alinsky, MARXIST REVOLUTION.

We must pray and believe for his, and his cohorts' , masks to come off! We need to call for Obama's true agenda to come to light NOW! Using a "crisis," many believe a deliberately created crisis, to bankrupt our nation and move a godless, socialist movement forward is happening right before our eyes. He refuses to call for investigations and audits of BANK CFOs that are demanding $2 trillion in taxpayer funded

PRAYER POINTS

Pray for God to expose and destroy the works of the devil. Quote aloud, Devil, I resist
you and you have to flee over our national security and treasury!

Ask God to bring down workers of iniquity and expose and destroy the works of Satan. Pray
the Lord to convict them of their sins and reveal the Cross of Calvary to them in a very real way.

Pray for the Lord to expose any actions on their part that would hurt America or threaten our national security.

Ask God to send a blast
of his breath to confuse and confound them and their plots.

Rebuke the satanic technique of mind control and psychopolitics over the American people.

Pray against the spirit of bailouts. $350 billion in bailout money has vanished.

We pay approximately $1.5 million annually for each office of the 435 elected congressmen, and $2 million for the 99 elected Senators annually. Very few act concerned that $350 billion has vanished. They gave another $350 billion to the same CEOs, and Obama has promised trillions in deficit spending.

RULES FOR RADICALS

"A MARXIST BEGINS WITH HIS PRIME TRUTH THAT ALL EVILS ARE CAUSED BY EXPLOITATION of the PROLETARIAT BY THE CAPITALISTS. FROM THIS HE LOGICALLY PROCEEDS TO THE REVOLUTION TO END CAPITALISM, THEN INTO THE THIRD STAGE OF REORGANIZATION INTO A NEW SOCIAL ORDER."

Obama is leading Alinsky's revolutionaries into reforming every aspect of this nation. His Alinsky followers are now in position.

"My aim here is to suggest how to organize for people: how to get it and how to use it." Alinsky says.

"Change means movement. Movement means friction.

The organizer is in a true sense reaching for the highest level for which man can reach - to create, to be a "great creator", to play God!"

"Ego must be so all-pervading that the personality of the organizer is contagious, that it converts the people from despair to defiance, creating a mass ego."

Sound like President Obama?

"You don't communicate with anyone purely on the rational facts or ethics of a issue. It is only when the other party is concerned or feels threatened that he will listen - in the arena of action, a threat or a crisis becomes almost a precondition to communication!"

Communism which has infiltrated our nation.

Bind the spirit of fear and intimidation over the American people.

Bind the spirits of liberalism and feminism which are destroying our nation.

We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers in high places.

Seniors Beware!

Look what 61 US Senators actually voted for:
Rationed Healthcare for Seniors

By: David A. Patten, NewsMax

Buried in the bowels of the stimulus plan the Senate passed Tuesday are key healthcare provisions that will set America on the road to socialized medicine; involve the government in your choice of a doctor; and inevitably trigger another funding crisis that will be used to justify still greater federal intervention in America's healthcare industry, experts tell NewsMax.

Among the most controversial parts of the bill are new federal guidelines that will require the government, rather than a doctor, to decide whether a patient should get medical care.

Ironically, the stimulus bill that will cost more than $1 trillion will lay the groundwork for a massive healthcare funding crisis in the future, according to senior healthcare fellow Dennis G. Smith of the Heritage Foundation.

Betsy McCaughey, the former New York lieutenant governor who has made healthcare reform her life's work, sees even more serious consequences to the plan.

She says new healthcare stipulations have intentionally been hidden in the stimulus bill to evade a public debate.

McCaughey describes the bill's provisions as "tragic," adding, "Senators should read these provisions and vote against them because they are dangerous to your health."

According to Bob Unruh of WorldNetDaily.

The former lieutenant governor of New York, McCaughey, is warning that the $50 billion that President Obama expects to spend in the next few years on a nationwide digital health health records for every individual easily could, and probably will, result in rationed medical care. It will be one that simply provides treatment when it determines the cost-benefit ratio for the treatment and the patient meets its guidelines.

Obama plans to spend $50 billion "over five years" to create a system of electronic health records for every person who sees a doctor. "If the Obama administration's economic stimulus bill passes...in its current form, seniors in the US will face...rationing. Defenders of the system say that "individuals benefit in younger years will sacrifice later."

"Medicare now pays for treatments deemed safe and effective: the stimulus bill would change that and apply a cost-effectiveness standard." says McCaughey.

"This board approves or rejects treatments using a formula that divides the cost of the treatment by the number of years the patient is likely to benefit. Treatments for younger patients are more often approved than treatments for diseases that affect the elderly, such as osteoporosis."

Socialized Medicine Tucked Away in stimulus Bill

No one from either party is objecting to the health provisions slipped in without discussion. These provisions reflect the handiwork of Tom Daschle, until recently the nominee to head the Health and Human Services Department. The bill's health rules will affect "every individual" in the United States' (445, 454, 479). Your medical treatments will be tracked electronically by a federal system. Having electronic medical records at your fingertips, easily transferred to a hospital, is beneficial. It will help avoid duplicate tests and errors.

But the bill goes further. One new bureaucracy, the National Coordinator of Health Information Technology, will monitor treatments to make sure your doctor is doing what the federal government deems appropriate and cost effective. The goal is to reduce costs and 'guide' your doctor's decisions' (442, 446). These provisions in the stimulus bill are virtually identical to what Daschle prescribed in his 2008 book, "Critical: What We Can do About the Health Care Crisis." According to Daschle, doctors have to give up autonomy and 'learn to operate less like solo practitioners.'

The stimulus bill does that, and calls it the Federal Coordinating Council for Comparative Effectiveness Research (190-192). The goal, Daschle's book explained, is to slow the development and use of new medications and technologies because they are driving up costs. He praises Europeans for being more willing to accept 'hopeless diagnoses' and 'forgo experimental treatments,' and he chastises Americans for expecting too much from the health-care system.

The stimulus bill will affect every part of health care, from medical and nursing education, to how patients are treated and how much hospitals get paid. The bill allocates more funding for this bureaucracy than for the Army, Navy, Marines, and Air Force combined (90-92, 174-177, 181).

Hiding health legislation in a stimulus bill is intentional. Daschle supported the Clinton administration's health-care overhaul in 1994, and attributed its failure to debate and delay. A year ago, Daschle wrote that the next president should act quickly before critics mount an opposition. 'If that means attaching a health-care plan to the federal budget, so be it' he said. 'The issue is too important to be stalled by Senate protocol.'

The health-care industry is the largest employer in the U.S. It produces almost 17 percent of the nation's gross domestic product. Yet the bill treats health care the way European governments do: as a cost problem instead of a growth industry. Imagine limiting growth and innovation in the electronics or auto industry during this downturn. This stimulus is dangerous to your health and the economy"

In an e-mail to listeners Rush Limbaugh said, "The march to socialized medicine starts in the spending bill that Obama is scaring you into backing."

"Health provisions in the 'stimulus' bill tell old people: You're gonna die, so accept it and get out of the way! Stop using up money we'd rather spend treating somebody younger."
